

Cambridge Realty Group VP Awarded CCIM Designation

San Antonio, Texas – April 22, 2010 – Cambridge Realty Group, Inc. (CRG), one of San Antonio’s leading, full-service commercial real estate firms, announced today that one of the company’s vice presidents, Christi Griggs, was awarded the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation by the CCIM Institute, one of the leading commercial real estate associations in the world.

The CCIM designation is awarded to commercial real estate professionals upon successful completion of a graduate-level education curriculum that addresses financial analysis, market analysis, user decision analysis and investment analysis. CCIMs are recognized as industry experts in commercial real estate brokerage, leasing, asset management, valuation, and investment analysis.

Ms. Griggs is responsible for a broad range of commercial real estate services including lease negotiations, acquisition and disposition transactions, and financial modeling. She helps both public and private companies develop and execute real estate strategies that support their business goals, as well as help local and national investors evaluate and analyze investment opportunities. With Cambridge Realty Group since early 2009, Ms. Griggs serves as a member of We Lead and holds an active license with the Texas Board of Architectural Examiners.

“We are pleased to have another member of our team earn the CCIM distinction this year,” said Gardner M. Peavy, Managing Partner of Cambridge Realty Group, Inc. “CRG has three professionals who have earned their CCIM designation illustrating the level of service this growing company is committed to providing in San Antonio. This demonstrates our real commitment to provide clients with additional expertise and valuable tools to maximize the value of commercial real estate transactions.”

Ms. Griggs joins fellow Cambridge Realty Group, Inc. brokers Gardner Peavy and Patrick Shearer, who all hold the CCIM distinction.

About CCIM Institute

The CCIM movement began more than 40 years ago with commercial real estate practitioners who wanted to elevate their business practices through focused education and networking opportunities. Still today, education and networking remain the cornerstones of the CCIM designation and the reason for its success. The CCIM Institute confers the CCIM designation and is an affiliate of the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR).

Established by the California Association of REALTORS® in 1954 under the name Certified Property Exchanger (CPE), the CCIM designation took on national significance in 1967 under administration by a division of NAR. In 1969, the designation was renamed Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM). A council was established to administer the designation, and in 1991 it was granted institute status as an affiliate of NAR.
